From Pompeii, $4\frac{1}{4}$ inches long.

10 3 GLASS LACHRYMA, OR TEAR BOTTLES.

From Pompeii; damaged.

 WITH THE EXCEPTION of last lot, all of these Tear Bottles are in a remarkable state of preservation; the extreme heat of the volcanic eruption which covered the unfortunate city has given to them a beautiful iridescent lustre which could not be imparted by any process known to Art.

11 SMALL GLASS VASE.

From Pompeii; a beautiful deep Prussian Blue, intermixed with Yellow Lines. Fine specimen; a perfect gem.

12 PAIR BRONZE EAR-RINGS.

Unconnected Hoops; from the excavations of Etruria.

21 SMALL HAND.

From Etruria, exceedingly well executed; evidently a portion of a small leaden figure.
See Plate.

22 BRONZE BULL.

Found among the Etruscan tombs at Vulci. See Plate.

23 GOLD NECKLACE.

From the excavations at Etruria. This beautiful specimen of the goldsmith's handiwork dates no later than six hundred years before Christ. It is composed of thirty Pendants, exhibiting a rare example of repousse Work; the Pendants are separated from one another by bands of gold in the shape of Bugles; each end of Necklace is finished off with a double Acorn.

This is, without doubt, the gem of Mr Hockley's Etruscan treasures, and is considered one of the finest specimens in this country. The length of Necklace is 15 inches. See Plate.

24 MOULDED CLAY NECKLACE.

Found in a tomb at Vulci, around the neck of an Actor; the Necklace consists of sixteen oblong Beads, from which hang thirteen Pendants, each portraying on either side a Thespian Face, with wide-open mouth. See Plate.

25 4 EGYPTIAN BRONZE GAME COUNTERS.

Found in the tombs of Gizeh.

26 SMALL BRONZE ORNAMENT.

With hole in centre, found in the tombs of Gizeh.

27 SMALL BRONZE STATUETTE.

From Pompeii: a man in nude state; very crude; mounted on Italian stand.

28 A SMALL BRONZE STATUETTE.

From Pompeii; representing the God of the Chase.

29 EGYPTIAN BRONZE IDOL.

Found in the Tombs of the Pyramids of Gizeh; extremely curious piece, representing a Seated Female with Child on Her Lap.

From Etruria ; black.

40 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA VASE, WITH HANDLE.

From Etruria ; light background, decorated in black, with Grecian Warlike Figures ; height, 6 inches ; very choice piece. See Plate.

41 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA URN, WITH TWO HANDLES.

From Etruria ; black background, decorated with Egyptian Female Head and Figure of a Swan ; height, $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches ; diameter, $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches. See Plate.

42 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA VASE, WITH HANDLE.

From Etruria ; black background, with decorations and Egyptian figure in red ; height, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches : beautiful piece. See Plate.

43 TERRA-COTTA VASE, WITH HANDLE.

From Pompeii; bottle shape; black. This vase, on account of the immense heat it was subjected to, has attained a beautiful black silvery glaze; a fine specimen; height, 9 inches.

44 TERRA-COTTA VASE, WITH HANDLE AND SPOUT.

From Pompeii; black; shape of tea-pot. This vase has same fine glaze as preceding one.

45 TERRA-COTTA BOTTLE JUG, WITH HANDLE.

From Pompeii; black.

46 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA MUG, WITH HANDLE.

53 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA LAMP.

From Etruria; red.

- 54 4 PIECES ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA POTTERY.
From Etruria.

- 55 2 TERRA-COTTA BOWLS.
From Pompeii; black.

- 56 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA SPOOL.
From Etruria; for winding thread.

- 57 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA MASK.
From Etruria; three-quarter face.

- 58 POMPEIAN JAR-SHAPE GLASS VASE, WITH LID.
This beautiful specimen from the excavations of Pompeii was, in the opinion of many of Mr. Hockley's friends (who were able to judge), far superior to the one owned by the British Museum; the peculiar action of the heat upon the glass has imparted to the vase a beautiful iridescent lustre; look at it from whatever angle you may, all the magnificent colors of the rainbow strike the eye; it is, without exception, one of the choicest pieces in the country. Height, with lid, 11 inches; diameter, $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

- 59 POMPEIAN GLASS BOWL.
Corrugated sides. This bowl also has the same beautiful lustre as the vase in the preceding number.

- 60 POMPEIAN GLASS BOTTLE VASE.

- 61 BRONZE CURVED SPOON, OR SWEAT SCRAPER.
From the ruins of Pompeii.

- 65 POMPEIAN MARBLE MEDALLION.
Head of Claudius Cæsar in high relief. A magnificent specimen of Pompeian Sculpture

66 LARGE ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA VASE, WITH TWO HANDLES AND LID.

This Choice Specimen from the ruins of Etruria is decorated in black on a background of a delicate brick-dust color, with Grecian Allegorical Figures. Vases of this size are seldom, if ever, found perfect; this one has been very neatly repaired. The shape is similar to that of a Portland vase. Height, 20 inches; diameter, 11 inches. See Plate.

67 ETRUSCAN BLACK TERRA-COTTA PITCHER-
SHAPED VASE.

From Etruria, decorated with Heads and Animals in Relief. This pitcher is the finest specimen of Etruscan Pottery in Mr. Hockley's Collection, and is far superior to the one in the British Museum, and is said to be the most perfect specimen yet discovered. Height, 15½ inches; diameter, 7 inches. See Plate.

68 ANOTHER.

Somewhat similar; differently decorated. See Plate.

69 ANOTHER.

Same shape, but smaller.

70 LARGE ETRUSCAN BLACK TERRA-COTTA VASE,
WITH COVER AND HANDLES.

From Etruria; very odd shaped, decorated with Animals in relief; the handles in the form of a Female Figure with uplifted arms; has been repaired; wants one handle; height with lid, 29 inches; diameter, 11 inches.

71 ANOTHER.

Same shape and size; damaged.

72 ETRUSCAN TERRA-COTTA PITCHER-SHAPED VASE.

From Etruria; light background, decorated in red; very choice specimen.

73 ETRUSCAN BLACK TERRA-COTTA CHALICE-
SHAPED VASE.

From Etruria; a magnificent specimen.

74 PERUVIAN RED TERRA-COTTA WHISTLING JAR.

75 MODERN POTTERY WATER JAR.

From Tunis.

76 TERRA-COTTA VASE.

77 PERSIAN BRASS TEMPLE VASE, WITH LID.

Exquisite piece of open-work and engraving; very old and rare; height, with cover, 23 inches.

78 PERSIAN BRASS TEMPLE VASE, OR INCENSE BURNER, WITH COVER.
